

Curriculum Rationale

Inchlair Early Learning and Childcare Centre provides a Froebelian principled approach to learning which advocates child-lead pedagogy through play, nature and real-life experiences. Where the ethos of learning together is valued with children, families, educators and community

We support each individual child's development through their interests and draw upon Curriculum for Excellence, Realising the Ambition and GIRFEC along with other local and national guidance and literature to support pedagogy. Documentation via children's personal learning stories, children's learning book and educators pedagogical documentation will support making learning visible

Curriculum Rationale

Inchlair Early Learning and Childcare Centre provides a Froebelian principled approach to learning which advocates child-lead pedagogy through play, nature and real-life experiences. Where the ethos of learning together is valued with children, families, educators and community

We support each individual child's development through their interests and draw upon Curriculum for Excellence, Realising the Ambition and GIRFEC along with other local and national guidance and literature to support pedagogy. Documentation via children's personal learning stories, children's learning book and educators pedagogical documentation will support making learning visible